LOT 132 - Original Oil on Canvas by Laura Lanford

Description

17.5" x 21.5"

Laura Lanford is a representational artist who is inspired to capture life's moving moments. Laura has always had a love of art and studied graphic design/illustration for two years at Auburn University. Although she pursued a different career, she has always been playing in the paint through the years. She became serious about oil painting after retiring from managing and working in her private pediatric speech therapy practice. Laura has professionally transitioned back to her passion for art and is devoted in time and energy to oil painting.
